BIO

Aubryanna is a South Jersey and Philadelphia-area pop and R&B artist, songwriter, and storyteller creating emotionally resonant records defined by authenticity, vulnerability, and emotional truth.

Her musical foundation began in church, where she first developed her voice and instinct for performance. Drawn to songwriting from an early age, she has built a sound that merges modern pop and R&B with intimate, perspective-driven storytelling.

Her debut single "CoverGirl" introduced a confident new voice centered on self-acceptance and individuality, while follow-up single "SAFE," released May 8, 2026, reveals a more intimate dimension - exploring trust, emotional security, and what it means to feel genuinely safe in love.

As her artistry evolves, Aubryanna is carving out a lane defined by emotional clarity, modern pop instinct, and a perspective that feels both personal and immediately relatable.
